

I am opposed to weakening Indiana's Do Not Call list for telecommunications. My telephone is for my personal use, and until telemarketers start paying my phone bill, they do not have any rights to harass me by phone (which is what it amounts to). I am asking that the current rules stand. Thank you.